DESCRIPTION

GENERAL INFORMATION

Conventional hotel owned by the Cuban hotel group Gran Caribe and managed by the Spanish chain Meliá Hotels International Cuba in an administrative contract under the brand Tryp Hotels since 1 December 2000. It opened on 19 March 1958.

RECOMMENDED FOR

Meetings and events, honeymoons. Premium room floor.

BRAND

Four or Five Star brand of hotels, strategically located and known for their amazingly good value for money. In Cuba they are situated in large cities and also on the beach. They are modern and functionally equipped to meet all the requirements of the business traveller or of those who are simply seeking complete relaxation.

DESCRIPTION

Four Star urban hotel covering an area of 10,000 m². It has 25 floors and is located 137 m above sea level, for which it boasts scenic views of both the sea and the city. It has six lifts and stairs to the second lobby. Informal, light-filled atmosphere. It combines art with an ambiance of conventions and entertainment. Spacious lobby with a central courtyard illuminated by natural light and a second lobby with a convention area, art gallery, access to the swimming pool, bars and a buffet.

DISTINCTIONS

The structure retains the style of the 1950s and stands out for its central location, scenic views of the city and sea and original décor with renowned original works of Cuban art. The hotel facade has a large ceramic mural rendered by Amelia Peláez. It has two lobbies; the main one is air-conditioned and is lit by a skylight, plus it has a central courtyard that re-creates a tropical atmosphere with vegetation. An original wooden staircase leads to the second lobby, whose floor houses the swimming pool and the entertainment and business areas. Spacious rooms for groups and convention and event areas. Executive floor on the 20th floor. Shopping centre, Casa del Habano Cigar House and Turquino party hall with retractable ceiling and the best views of Havana. Benchmark hotel in the city for events and gatherings. Historical room known as La Castellana, the only hotel which used to serve as the headquarters of the government in Cuba. Great value for money, surrounded by a wide range of nightlife and business services in the city. Considered the top hotel.

LOCATION

Located in the centre of Havana, in the famous Zona de la Rampa, 500 m from Havana's Malecón and 5 km from the historic city centre. Surrounded by cinemas, theatres, the famous Coppelia ice cream parlour, the University of Havana, shopping centres and other places of interest. Havana's Playas del Este beaches are located 25 km away.
