ENTERTAINMENT

- Swimming pools

With an architectural style rooted in the 1950s, the Las Cañitas Bar alongside this freshwater pool offers a delicious choice of drinks and cocktails. A towel service, sunbeds, lifeguard service and nice shaded areas make your experience even more comfortable.

- Visit "La Castellana"

After the Cuban Revolution, room 2324 (known as "La Castellana") was the headquarters of the new government led by Fidel Castro for several weeks. Today this suite at the Tryp Habana Libre offers an unparalleled experience assisted by hotel specialists who can help show you more about this key period in Cuban history.

- Entertainment and activities

The Tryp Habana Libre surprises you with magnificent leisure options. Music plays in the evening in the lobby and bars, and you can also enjoy social events, fashion shows, visual arts events and much more.

- Turquino ballroom

Would you like to enjoy a dance experience with pure Cuban flavour? This nightclub-bar has an original retractable roof that opens at midnight to reveal the magic of the Havana night sky. Feel at one with the island beats thanks to music from popular local bands.

- Personalised experiences

Tryp Habana Libre offers an exclusive package of experiences with an extra cost. Taste cocktails that have won awards in international competitions, savour Cuban cigars and rum, enjoy romantic evenings or tour the most interesting historic spaces in the hotel to enjoy some of the benefits of our most personalised service.

- Fall in love with Havana

Come and explore the most ancient and exotic sites in a historic city frozen in time. Make the most of the hotel's excellent location to visit the most attractive buildings, recreation areas, squares, parks and the famous Havana seafront promenade. Plan the most fascinating and stimulating tour of Havana's many attractions together with family and friends.
